Dear Mr. Crisci,

We would like to thank you for coming to our museum and being one of our "Dinner with a Slice of (UN-Told) History" presenters. We had roughly 60 attendees for the event on September 13. Many of the guests are still commenting to me that they thought it was one of the best presentations we've had here. They were interested not only in the story of Lilia, but in the experiences you had in getting the information for your book and the people and places along the way.

We greatly appreciate all of your support and generous donation of time to come speak at the museum and wish you continued success in all that you do. We hope that you will visit again and look forward to a continued relationship throughout the years.

Sincerely,

Heather Alexander
